Lilly Thurman is originally from East Bernard, Texas. She studied dance at the Keller Academy of Performing Arts and Move Dance and Fitness where she later gained experience as an instructor. Since then, Lilly has performed nationally and internationally, including a performance opening for the Radio City Rockettes in Houston, Texas and Coco Dance festival in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago. She most recently is a graduate of Texas State University with a BFA in Performance and Choreography. She hopes to one day further her education in dance miniseries and spread the word of Jesus through movement. Ms. Lilly is excited to be joining our SODA Faculty for the upcoming season and hopes to see you on the dance floor.
